TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

Two Brothers Murdered by a Woman. WHEELING, Va., June 5.--Samuel and Cornelius Walters, were murdered at a road house near here Sunday night by a woman named Bertha Williams. The brothers were sitting quietly in an upper room, when Samuel was called out to settle a dispute between several persons. As Walters stepped out he was seized by the throat and thrown to the ground. While prostrated the Williams woman shot him through the head. Cornelius heard the shooting and ran to his brother's assistance. As he was bending over him the murderer pressed the muzzle of a revolver to his back and fired, the ball penetrating his spine, producing death in a few hours. No cause is known for the assassination.

A Political Prophecy. SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.--The Oakland, Cal., Tribune to-night says: The Oregon election is the most important political event that has come about this year. All the wires were laid for a big hurrah, could the state have been carried by the democracy. But the present situation is complicated by the president's free trade policy, and the defeat of his party in Oregon is the first serious rebuke to the adherents of that policy. It will not be the last.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS. A man who gave his name as J. C. O'Brien, was arrested in Helena, Mont., yesterday, for the murder of a Mormon in Utah, sixteen years ago. After the warrant was read he owned to the crime, but said he did it in self defense.

The senate committee on pensions has agreed to report favorably the bill granting pensions to soldiers and sailors confined in confederate prisons. A wedding in high life took place in Washington yesterday, a daughter of Justice Matthews, of the supreme court, being married to John H. Cleveland, of Kentucky, a nephew of Justice Harlan.

A few weeks ago it was announced that Henry Villard would undertake an expedition to the south pole, then it was very emphatically denied. Now the statement is repeated. Elections for the state supreme court were held in Illinois on Monday. The returns show that republicans were elected which makes the court republican for the first time in its history.

A wind storm in Salt Lake, Utah, yesterday, unroofed churches, school houses and other buildings, uprooted trees and did other serious damage. It is rumored that another plot against the life of the czar has been discovered. In Pittsburgh the iron and steel workers have decided to refuse a reduction of wages, and the owners threaten to close their mills. An extensive strike is imminent.

The Humdine hotel, Texas, was burnt on Monday, and yesterday the bodies of eight persons were taken from the remains. Two are unrecognized. Cash For Wool. Highest cash price paid for wool in the Opera House block. F. LEVY.

TO THE PROHI CONVENTION

Three Dozen Delegates Start Out for Indianapolis. FARMING NOTES BY THE WAY.

Many Inquiries About Oregon, the Webfoot State not Much Known.

At 1 p. m., a large crowd gathered in the Union depot at Minneapolis, to cheer the Minnesota delegates on their departure. The special Pullman car is profusely decorated with red, white and blue flags, and lettered cloth stretched the length of the car on each side tells its place of departure and destination. The Fisk glee club sings; the W. C. T. U. women bring banquets; the editor of the Northwestern Prohibitionist, who has made a raise of a suit of store clothes and a silk hat, is presented with a gold-headed cane. Mr. J. P. Pinkham, a prominent preacher of the Friends, and an intimate of Dr. Minthorn, of your city, is state chairman, and makes a speech. So do some Montana delegates, and also 'yours truly' from Oregon.

AMID HEARTY AND REPEATED CHEERS We pull out, a jolly crowd. At Hamlin, the boys of the Methodist University, where they have a prohi club, stood on the platform and cheered as we rushed by. At St. Paul we stop 20 minutes. A big crowd gathered to hear us sing campaign songs, and to see and hear our gigantic crank which makes a noise like a hundred policemen's rattles. At least 1000 lbs of prohibition literature is stored in the car for distribution at this and other stations.

Here more delegates come from abroad, among them Father Mahoney, a resident Catholic priest, a strong prohi party speaker, who gives away Catholic prohibition literature at every place we reach. The big crank is trotted out, and the choir sings from 'the Prohibition Bells,' the Silver Lake quartette song book. Several lady delegates are in the company. The ticket agent and conductor are prohi; the latter wears a little ivory white cross on his breast, the emblem of social purity, a department of the W. C. T. U.

We are traveling through some grazing, highly timbered country, but see very little farm land, and not many large towns. The morning papers regale us with accounts of first-class cyclones that are getting in their destructive work thus early in the season.

THIS IS VERY ENCOURAGING. But we hope to escape. One of the most active workers on the train is Mr. Hugh Harrison, of the large wholesale grocery firm of Harrison, Harrington & Co., of Minneapolis, (who gave $15,000 to aid in the distribution of prohi papers). He is a delegate and you see him with coat off, busy arranging pamphlets and papers for distribution. He is to be seen on the platform and in passenger rooms giving out his reading matter, and earnestly enforcing prohibition. Just fancy H. W. Corbett, or McCracken, of Portland, doing this work, and you can size it up exactly.

We have a smoking car along, but I don't see any one of the thirty-six prohi who smokes or chews. The Minneapolis Tribune sends a special reporter at its own expense. The leading newspapers recognize us as a factor. We're not so lonesome as we used to be.

We are passing through a better farming country. Winter wheat looks well, fairly covering the ground. Spring seeding is being done. Many enquiries are every where made concerning Oregon. I have long ago given away all the advertising matter I brought. Have written the Oregon Land Company to send me more at Indianapolis. I see at St. Paul two large posters advertising Oregon and informing the people to write to the Portland Board of Trade for full information. These are the only advertisements I have noticed. I take pains to tell all who think of coming west that it is not wise, especially if they have families, to come without some means with which to buy a home or to tide them over until they could obtain remunerative employment. Night is settling down upon us. We expect to be in Chicago for breakfast; in Indianapolis for a meeting of the National committee in the afternoon; the oratorical contest of the National Intelligentsia

Prohibition clubs at night; and the National convention on Wednesday the 30th. Being decoration day, we shall adjourn to allow all to attend the services at the soldiers' graves, and at night we will hold memorial services ourselves. Union and confederate generals from north and south, ex-republican and ex-democrats, with northern and southern ladies, will make prohibition and patriotic speeches.

J. W. W. ON THE TRAIN IN WISCONSIN, May 28.] STATE NEWS.

Monday morning a longer named Chas Robbins was killed at Smith's logging camp near Knappa, by a falling tree. Deceased was aged 31 years; was a married man and leaves a wife and two children.

Ashland Tidings: A large crop of alfalfa hay was just cut in the valley south of Ashland, when the soaking rains of the latter part of last week began, and some of it was considerably damaged.

Baker City Democrat: We notice that teams are now coming in every day, loaded with wool from the various sheep camps, all go out loaded with goods for the county.

Albany Herald: Mr. Richard Cheadle, who resides near Lebanon, has in operation a successful cheese factory. He keeps 80 cows and turns out 100 pounds of cheese per day.

Albany Democrat: A Democrat man has made faithful efforts to ascertain the exact value of the recent rain to Linn county; but different persons differ several cents on the estimate. After a careful comparison of figures we think it may safely be placed at $51,267.02.

'Helms to Millions.' The newspaper stated, and how many women, probably, read the same, and envied her. But little was she to be envied, however; for in spite of her great wealth she was miserable. It was her lot, in common with myriads of women, to suffer from those 'chronic weaknesses,' which are peculiar to the female sex. Miserable, nervous, and discouraged, she would gladly have given every dollar of her fortune for one brief installment of health. How easy, and how inexpensive, would be the journey to health, if Dr. Pierce's favorite prescription was selected as a remedy, and the use of the same persisted in; that is, the experience of thousands of women afflicted in the above manner teaches us to predict so. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years. Dr. Pierce's pellets, or anti-bilious granules, cure sick headache, dyspepsia and constipation.

Sipped in the Bud. Is it not better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave? Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem.
